

East Campus Renaissance
Father Robert Madden Hall Update
Spring Reunion 1999

A Letter from the Editor

To the Alumni and Friends of the University of St. Michael's College -

"Teach me Goodness, Discipline and Knowledge", this inspiring motto of our beloved institution, has been a driving force in the completion of this special task - the first issue of DOUBLE BLUE - University of St. Michael's College Alumni Newsletter. In the traditions initiated by Father John M. Kelly CSB and carried on by Father Robert Madden CSB, this alumni newsletter has become the most effective means of communication and dialogue with you - its alumni and friends.

Upon my appointment to the position of Director, Alumni Affairs, I was delighted to begin work on a project with the Communications Committee of the Alumni Association's Board. The committee - Sam Lee 9T5, Marie Daly Cook 9T1, Rosemary Rizzo Chambers 9T1, Elizabeth Paupst 9T2 and Maureen Hart 8T9, President of the Alumni Association - wanted to look at ways to strengthen the sense of community among the alumni, and thus increase support of the moral, financial, educational, spiritual and recruitment needs of the college.

On April 10, 1999, the committee invited a small group of Alumni and staff with relevant skills and experience to join them in exploring the possibility of developing a new look for the alumni newsletter. The group under the facilitation guidance of Brenda Sweeney 8T4 agreed that the newsletter should convey the message of USMC. There was a need to remind our readers of the SMC ethos. The newsletter should strengthen in alumni a sense of nostalgia for their college and its mission.

This project drew on all three values expressed in the motto of St. Michael's. We owe a special thanks to the committee and to all those who, in their goodness, exercised discipline in dedicating their knowledge, time and talents so generously.

What you see today is the result of the hard work of this dedicated group and our staff. I hope that you enjoy this first issue of our "new look". Please contact us by telephone, letter or e-mail with your reactions and recommendations for future issues. I look forward to hearing from you. Next issue, I anticipate a new item in our newsletter - Letters to the Editor!

One final but important note: the Alumni Affairs and Development Office has a new staff member - Angela Kim Mazza, an SMC graduate of the Class of 9T0. Please join me in welcoming her.

Along with much of eastern North America, Toronto this summer sweltered through record breaking heat. Undaunted by temperatures soaring well above 32 degrees, visitors to the St. Michael's campus in late July included some fifty "lifelong learners" enrolled in our Division of Continuing Education's newest initiative – a week long summer seminar entitled "Classical Pursuits". Alumni and friends of St. Michael's taking part in this programme were billeted on campus and spent part of their vacation reliving their student days by discussing Plato, Dante, and Dostoevsky, and enjoying special lectures, theatre presentations, and tours of Father Dan Donovan's collection of Canadian contemporary art.

One of the highlights of the programme was a mid-week "Literary Cabaret" featuring musical selections from Kurt Weill, Irish songs, dramatic presentations from James Joyce's Dubliners and Ulysses and readings from the recently published work of two Toronto writers, one a novelist, the other a poet.

Alumni I talked with were enthusiastic about this opportunity to re-visit the campus at its mid-summer best and to experience – once again – the pleasures of reading, listening to and discussing some of the classical masterpieces of Western culture. We have been encouraged to repeat this type of summer programming, and information is available from Dr. Mimi Marrocco, the Director of Continuing Education.

Other developments on campus make this a particularly exciting time to report to you. A few years ago in these pages I wrote that "some difficult but not desperate times remain ahead. The College has a plan to deal with present and future needs, and the worry, hard decisions, sacrifices, and stringent budget policies should be seen as a very worthwhile price to pay to maintain and develop the tradition of excellence that has been the hallmark of St. Michael's for over a century".

Since that time a tight control on expenditures and the success of the "Secure the Tradition" special appeal have enabled the College to withstand the demise of the planned sale of our surplus Bay Street land. This means that today I can have a much more positive and optimistic message to convey.

In the past three years the University of Toronto Departments of French and German have moved to St. Michael's and are currently housed in Odette Hall, the newly renovated Clover Hill building. Next spring construction work in Carr Hall will precede the move of the Italian and Slavic Studies Departments to St. Michael's. One result will be that more undergraduate teaching will be taking place on our campus and more of our students will be taking a larger part of their academic programmes at St. Michael's. These developments are accompanied by the move of the University Department of Spanish and Portuguese to Victoria College our immediate neighbour to the north, and they, taken together, demonstrate a recognition by the University of Toronto of the importance of the Colleges east of Queen's Park, the largest colleges on the St. George campus, in achieving the University's objective of providing the best undergraduate educational experience in Canada.

Looking ahead, Principal Joseph Boyle has reported that we can expect to see a record 3,600 undergraduate students on campus this fall. Of our more than 800 first year students, as many as 300 will enter with academic averages above ninety per cent. With the "double cohort" of entering residents in 2003, as a result of the elimination of Grade 13 in Ontario, enrolment at St. Michael's is expected to be capped at 4,000 students. In order to accommodate this growth, the University of Toronto has asked us to consider expanding our residence space. Plans are now underway for a new residence at St. Michael's that will take its architectural inspiration from Teefy, More and Fisher Houses. It should be noted that in increasing our residence capacity St. Michael's again affirms its intention not only to house as many first-year students as possible on campus but also to allow for their integration with more senior students, thus enriching their introduction to university level studies. We also anticipate that the elimination of Grade 13 will again make St. Michael's and the University of Toronto the preferred choice of many American high-school graduates.

In the past several years at the University of Toronto, and in particular at St. Michael's College, we have faced large financial challenges. Government cutbacks, the loss through declining vocations of the contributed services provided by the Basilian Fathers, and by Loretto and St. Joseph Sisters, and the cancellation of the Bay Street land sale have meant the College has had to persevere through tough times. Our response has enabled us not merely to survive but now to plan and begin implementing a programme of new academic activity and of physical renewal and expansion. St. Michael's success in the current Campaign of the University of Toronto shows that it is possible to address the needs of providing for a unique academic programme and its special collegiate focus and of renovating and upgrading a beautiful but aging campus.

Of course none of this would be possible without you. The generosity and support of St. Michael's alumni/ae and friends continues to be one of the most positive experiences of my time here as President. In return, I can tell you that our students continue to achieve high academic distinction and retain the capacity to be motivated by spiritual and social goals, public purposes and the ethic of productive citizenship. We can all, I think, be proud of the St. Michael's tradition which continues to flourish and grow.

Richard Alway

President.

University of St. Michael's College

Welcome to the first issue of the rejuvenated St. Michael's Alumni newsletter. I hope you will find it an interesting and pleasant read.

This publication is one of the first concrete examples of the exciting changes that have been taking place within the Alumni Association and the Board of Directors. As some of you may know, we undertook a strategic planning session almost two years ago that brought about many changes and new initiatives.

The first step was to get our "house" in order. The Board itself has been regenerated by a new Executive and Committee structure that better suits our activities and your needs. Rather than relying solely on Board members to coordinate activities, we have recruited alumni with various specialties to help us with one-time projects so that they feel a sense of contribution and completion.

This, in turn, has led to the development of further initiatives that are less administrative in nature and will achieve – we hope – greater interest and participation among all alumni. One such example was the organization of the retirement party for Fr. Robert Madden last fall and subsequently, the creation of a committee that is currently overseeing the redevelopment of Carr 100 into Father Robert Madden Hall.

Annual Fund: The Old and the New

The Annual Fund campaign for 98/99 drew to a close on 30 April, 1999. We thank all those donors who contributed generously to help us to achieve our goal of $600,000. These gifts from Alumni make the difference at our College. They provide the essential support to the services which foster our unique spirit and tradition: Chaplaincy, College academic programmes in Christianity and Culture and in Celtic Studies, Continuing Education, new books for the John M. Kelly library, scholarships and bursaries, and other special spiritual, academic, cultural, social and athletic student events.

Last Spring, two St. Michael's College students, Carolina Christiansen and Karen Volpe represented Canada and the University of Toronto in Rome at the 32nd Annual International University Congress, UNIV99, interacting with students from around the world. They presented a paper, "Volunteer Work: Developing Solidarity at the University", which promoted the active involvement of university students in volunteer work in their communities. Karen and Carolina were extremely grateful for the financial aid they received from the Annual Fund; it helped make their participation in the congress possible. One more way your Annual Fund donation adds to the life of the College.

As you can see in this newsletter, we also have a very strong Communications Committee that is working diligently to create vibrant and interesting communications materials. Along with the newsletter, the alumni web site has been a big project for this group. We have ambitious goals for the internet – a "downloadable" newsletter, an alumni chat room, a "store" where you can purchase SMC clothing and other gifts, a list of alumni e-mail addresses to help keep alumni in touch, and more.

We also have reinvigorated finance, membership and events committees who are working on a number of different projects. Particularly, the membership committee is always looking for volunteers – anyone who is interested in being on this list can contact the committee through the Alumni Office.

The Alumni Association is very interested in hearing your ideas and benefiting from your expertise. We do not want our communications or activities to be a one-way street. If you have comments, ideas or would like to be involved, please contact the office.

Now, to address the hopes and dreams for "Annual Fund for 2000!" The Finance Committee, under the able and energetic direction of Patrick Carroll 7T0, Treasurer of the Alumni Association, has set an ambitious goal for next year – $750,000! Under the direction of Victor Dodig 8T8 and Laura Syron 8T8, a strategic plan has been developed that promises to deliver increased participation and donations. The Alumni Affairs and Development staff are working to provide the necessary resources to support the efforts of the Board and its Finance committee.

The successful results of "Annual Fund 2000" would continue the tradition of outstanding Alumni support for St. Michael's in carrying out its mission to provide a premier Catholic university education inspired by the motto "Teach me Goodness, Discipline and Knowledge."

SMC Alumni Year Representative Profile

YEAR REPS ARE OUR ONLY WAY OF DISSEMINATING INFORMATION TO OUR ALUMNI ABOUT ST. MICHAEL'S COLLEGE ALUMNI NEWS AND EVENTS. WITH THIS NEW ISSUE OF DOUBLE BLUE, WE ARE HIGHLIGHTING TWO YEAR REPS WHO HAVE DONE OUTSTANDING JOBS OF STAYING INVOLVED AND KEEPING IN TOUCH WITH THEIR FELLOW ALUMNI.

Gloria Buckley 4T8 is an outstanding alumna representative of the University of St. Michael's College. She continues to share abundantly her gifts and talents with the St. Michael's community.

Gloria came to St. Michael's College in 1944 from Goderich, Ontario; she lived at St. Joseph's College. She graduated with a Bachelor of Arts in 1948. Gloria married Robert Buckley 4T7 and became the proud mother of three sons, Brian 7T6, a family doctor in North Bay, Roger, a surgeon in North York and Philip 8T1, a Professor of Philosophy at McGill University in Montreal.

Gloria worked for 25 years at St. Michael's Hospital, retiring as supervisor of the special chemistry lab. She has continued to work for Professor Emeritus J.E. Guillet at the UofT, involved in research dealing with photodegradable polymers.

Her volunteer activities have included 15 years on St. Michael's Alumni Association's Board, representing SMC three years ago on the College of Electors. She received the Harbour Award in 1993 for her volunteer service to St. Michael's and the UofT and is an active Year Representative for the Class of 4T8. She is Secretary of the Senior Alumni group at U of T and is active in their "Perspectives" lecture series. She is Eucharistic Minister at her parish, Holy Rosary. Her hobbies include gardening, attending plays and concerts and relaxing at her cottage.

Gloria's many friends and co-workers at St. Michael's are grateful for her enthusiasm and generosity. Thank you, Gloria for all that you do!

For Michael Camacho 9T0, it is almost as though he never left St. Mike's. He wasted no time after graduation before becoming involved with the Alumni Association. He began by planning events for Young Alumni, such as pubs, Raptors games, Blue Jays games, the orientation BBQs, and the Santa Claus Mass and parade (where it was rumoured that due to the unavailability of Father Madden, Santa Claus closely resembled him!).

From 1996 to 1998, he served on the Executive of the Alumni Board as Secretary/Treasurer, where he was responsible for, among other things, the Annual Fund alumni phonathons. He was also closely involved with the Spring Memories Celebration "friend-raisers" that were so immensely successful.

While studying at St. Michael's College, Michael was a day student, but lived for one year on McBrady, so he experienced both aspects of college life. He was active on SMCSU, serving as Double Blue Commissioner, organizing pubs, Winterfest, and other events and activities. He also was Frosh Orientation Co-ordinator.

Michael presently works in sales and marketing for World Travel Protection (providing medical assistance to travelers and health information to prescription drug users), and is living in Toronto with his new wife, Michelle Vachon, herself a veteran of SMC alumni events, including the Niagara Wine Tour. The Alumni Board thanks him for his hard work and faithful service over the past 10 years.

Overseas Alumni: David Mulroney 7T8, Our Man in Taipei

David J. Mulroney 7T8 became Director of the Canadian Trade Office in Taipei last summer. This is a volatile area of the world with very sensitive geo-political and economic issues; the office represents Canada's trade, investment and cultural interests in Taiwan. A career diplomat, he was seconded from 1995-1998 to be the Executive Director of the Canada China Business Council based in Toronto, directing economic co-operation initiatives and Team Canada visits to East Asia.

After completing his BA in English (Gold Medalist), David joined the Foreign Service after completing full-time Mandarin instruction in Ottawa. In addition to assignments in South Korea and Malaysia, he also served as the Deputy Director of the East Asia Trade section of External Affairs from 1988 – 1990, shaping Canada's China policy during that pivotal period. In 1986, he was posted to Shanghai as Consul and Trade Commissioner to re-establish our official presence in the commercial heart of China.

David Mulroney and spouse Janet Wakely 7T8 reluctantly left the Beaches district of Toronto when they relocated to Taipei, but happily report that they and children Aidan, Kate and Sean are enjoying the adventure of living abroad. David and Janet have both been excellent supporters of the University and on 10 May 1999 the Mulroneys opened their home to welcome UofT alumni and friends living in Taipei. Dr. Jon Dellandrea, Vice President and Chief Development Officer for UofT, was visiting from Canada and met approximately 50 guests. Dr. Liu Chao-Shiuan (Ph.D., 7T1), Vice Premier of the Executive Yuan, enjoyed a special day – it was his birthday and he has been selected as this year's Rose Wolfe Distinguished Alumnus. Imagine his delight when the Director presented him with a special UofT birthday cake! David Mulroney also qualifies as a most distinguished alumnus of St. Michael's: skilled diplomat, devoted father and loyal to his alma mater.

Scholarship Launched a Partnership Flourishing from the Roots of St. Michael's

A timely conversation and the generosity of donors have resulted in the creation of a new scholarship fund at St. Michael's which will provide tuition and residence for youth in the care of the Catholic Children's Aid Society (CCAS) who are granted admission to St. Michael's and the UofT.

Earlier this year, Mary Ellen Burns 7T0, Director of Alumni Affairs at St. Michael's, and Caroline Morgan DiGiovanni 7T0, Executive Director of Public Relations of the Catholic Children's Aid Society of Toronto, met to explore avenues for access to the UofT and St. Michael's for CCAS wards and discuss possible sources for their financial support. There existed the possibility of dollar for dollar matching funds from both the UofT and the Province of Ontario for private donations. The challenge was to find a private donor to make the initial gift. A well-known friend and supporter of St. Michael's, Louis "Bud" Odette, was approached and generously agreed to make a gift of $100,000 to cover the residence fees.

Caroline was aware that SMC grads Michael 6T7 and Mary Catherine Lee O'Brien 6T6 had established a scholarship fund in memory of their deceased son, Matthew, through the Catholic Children's Aid Society's "Hope for Children Foundation," whose purpose is to provide financial assistance to wards of the CCAS who are pursuing further education. The O'Briens, realizing the benefits of the matching grants, were happy to give to St. Michael's the money they had raised, along with that raised by their son, Michael Jr., through his cross-Canada bicycle ride in 1998. The $68,000 in the initial fund became the tuition portion of the Matthew O'Brien Memorial Scholarship endowment at St. Michael's. With the matching grants, the total endowment is approximately $500,000.

A reception to mark the establishment of this scholarship at the College was held in Charbonnel Lounge on campus 11 May 1999. Joining the O'Brien family at the reception were members of the Board of CCAS and of the Board of the Hope for Children Foundation, whose Chair is Bill O'Reilly SMC 7T0, and representatives from St. Michael's.

Brian O'Malley, St. Michael's Executive Director of Alumni Affairs and Development, commented, "St. Michael's can provide a special level of support for these students. They can study in the Catholic environment, which was an essential part of their attachment to CCAS. For many youth who have been Society wards, university is a dream they are not able to realize. They may sometimes be able to get funds for tuition, but most have to work to keep body and soul together. They don't have parents who can help them with books and room and board. This new endowment was an idea made in heaven."

Kelly lecture on the Church and the millennium

This year's John M. Kelly Theology Lecture, the nineteenth in the series, was given on 25 March 1999 to a near capacity crowd in Sam Sorbara Hall. The Rev. Ronald Rolheiser, O.M.I., presented a provocative and stimulating lecture. His topic, "Hope and Concern: The Church and the Culture on the Eve of the New Millennium" provided both moral and cultural analysis along with some essential theological prescriptions.

Fr. Rolheiser provided a generous handout for his audience, and elaborated on the present moment in the Church and in the culture with three main themes: spirituality vs. ecclesiology, life vs. wisdom, and justice vs. piety. Father Rolheiser explained that our times are cause for hope and concern, but he was careful to leave his audience with much hope and a positive outlook for the future of the Church. His lecture was insightful, caring, and very well received.

Grounds committee at work

Landscaping at St. Michael's College is now under the direction of a new Grounds Committee approved by the Collegium last winter. The committee will oversee the care and planning of the College grounds and will raise money to supplement resources available.

Chair of the Committee is Father James McConica, CSB, with Fr James Farge, CSB, representing the Basilian Fathers, two active alumni, Mark Osbaldeston 9TO, Alex Reford 8T4, and Jim Carson. John Hillier, of the landscaping firm DuToit, Allsopp, Hillier, is an invited member in an advisory capacity.

The Committee has highlighted several areas of the campus for immediate attention: the land on Queen's Park between St. Michael's and Victoria; the planting around the sculpture of "Michael"; the garden beds surrounding Brennan Hall, and the area below Clover Hill on St. Joseph Street, where there are a number of complicating factors to be taken into account.

Early efforts have already attracted support from alumni, and it is hoped that others will respond with donations of money, time or plant stock suitable to renew the perennial planting around Brennan Hall.

New Appointments

Rev. T. Allan Smith, CSB, came to the Faculty of Theology in July 1998 after teaching for four years at Newman Theological College in Edmonton. He is Associate Professor for the History of Christianity and the Director of Advanced Degree Programs for the Faculty of Theology. His scholarly interests lie in the history and theology of Eastern Christianity, with a special focus on the Russian Orthodox Church. Prof. Smith has published articles on Russian monasticism, Orthodox spirituality and ecclesiology. He is the editor and translator of Sergei M. Soloviev, Russian Society under Ivan the Terrible (Academic International Press, 1996). A second volume, The Tsar and the Patriarch, is in preparation.

Rev. Mario O. D'Souza, CSB, joined the Faculty of Theology in July 1999. Prof. D'Souza comes to the faculty from Edmonton, where he was Academic Dean of St. Joseph's College in the University of Alberta. He will teach in the MRE programme, bringing to bear his expertise in Religious Education and the Philosophy of education. His interests are postmodernism, multiculturalism, pluralism and their impact on educational theory. Recent publications include "Jacques Maritain's Philosophy of History and Philosophy of Education: A Relationship Secured Through Experience and Reason," The Journal of Educational Administration and Foundations 12 (1997) 2:12-24 and "The Preparation of Teachers for Roman Catholic School: Some Philosophical First Principles," Paideusis: Journal of the Canadian Philosophy of Education Society 9 (Spring 1996) 2:5-19.

On 16 August 1999, President Richard Alway announced the appointment of Father Timothy Fitzgerald, C.S.B and Eva Lados as the new Chaplains at St. Michael's College. Father Timothy originally from Connecticut, has spent many of the past ten years living and working with the Basilian Fathers in Toronto, as well as studying at our Faculty of Theology where he received a Master of Divinity degree. His undergraduate work was in Philosophy and English. Father Timothy is a convert to Catholicism and in addition to his new position as Chaplain he will continue graduate studies in Theology. Ms. Eva Lados has been a counsellor at Centennial College and has worked at Catholic Family Services. She holds a Master of Divinity and a Master of Social Work degree.

Gratitude Success

The 1999 Gratitude fundraising campaign for graduating students was a great success this year. A total of 234 graduates have pledged $5,540 towards refurbishing Odette Lounge.

Duane Rendle, Dean of Men at St. Michael's College has just completed his inaugural year. He reports that despite the many enjoyable duties of his position, there is one task that he could gladly do away with: having to turn away the myriad of students who are desperately seeking housing. He has a waiting list of over 100 men. The increase can be attributed to the large number of former residents opting to return to St. Mike's. This is coupled with a substantial increase in the number of freshmen students who are taking advantage of U of T's residence guarantee. Often the students on the waiting list have visited our updated web site and decided that St. Michael's is exactly the type of academic and spiritual community for which they have been looking.

In order to meet the increased demand, St. Michael's is planning to construct a new residence - its first since Elmsley Hall, completed in 1957. The architect has been carefully chosen and is committed to maintain the same architectural style of Fisher, More and Teefy Houses. Rendle reports that it is an exciting time to be associated with the Men's Residence. He encourages alumni to take a stroll down memory lane and visit them online at:

www.utoronto.ca/stmikes/undergrad/res.html.

As you can see, residence life continues to provide for many of our students a strong community of faith and friendship.

Life in Residence at USMC

Alumni news would be incomplete without reports from the residences at St. Michael's. For those of you who experienced residence life at St. Michael's, we have asked the Deans from Loretto, St. Joseph's and the St. Michael's Residences to comment on the residence scene.

Laurelle LeVert has been Dean of Residence at Loretto College for the past two years. She started at Loretto while completing her Ph.D in Mediaeval Studies at the Centre for Mediaeval Studies at U of T. Laurelle looks forward to hearing from any former Loretto residents who have news, history or memories to share. Contact her at loretto@web.net.

She reports that it is impossible to tell you all the changes that have happened at Loretto, even in the past decade: man-hour increases (!), renovations, major and minor, staff changes and retirements; the death of some beloved Loretto Sisters, the moving on of others, and the continued commitment to the College of six Loretto nuns who remain in residence. It is her hope that in the years to come, Loretto can host special visits and events for its alumnae as part of Alumni events at St. Michael's. The Alumni Affairs and Development office is updating address records for both SMC alumnae and those from the professional faculties.

Sister Anne Marie Marrin, CSJ, Dean of Residence at St. Joseph's College reports that "It's just the same...but different." Ask any of the women who have stayed at St. Joseph's in the last few summers, especially the Classes of 4T8 and 4T9 who came back alone or with their husbands for "Homecoming" or Spring Reunion. They stayed in the "Mansion", some in the very room that they slept in years ago. The Great Hall, the circular staircase and lounges looked the same and still felt like the home away from home they shared years ago. There were lots of stories to be shared about the regimes of various Deans: "Remember when Sister Geraldine...". The present Dean, while not dressed as Sister Blandina, by her presence carries the charism and traditions of St. Joseph's and assures us that the Sisters are prepared to meet the challenges and changes of the new century. Sister Anne Marie also reports that the students still find residence a place where true and lasting friendships have a beginning and where they can pursue their studies with support and relative peace in order to prepare for their futures and follow their dreams. "The motto, 'The love of Christ: Congregavit nos in unum Christi Amor' continues to bring us together in loving support for one another and outreaching to others."

Duane Rendle, Dean of Men at St. Michael's College has just completed his inaugural year. He reports that despite the many enjoyable duties of his position, there is one task that he could gladly do away with: having to turn away the myriad of students who are desperately seeking housing. He has a waiting list of over 100 men. The increase can be attributed to the large number of former residents opting to return to St. Mike's. This is coupled with a substantial increase in the number of freshmen students who are taking advantage of U of T's residence guarantee. Often the students on the waiting list have visited our updated web site and decided that St. Michael's is exactly the type of academic and spiritual community for which they have been looking.

In order to meet the increased demand, St. Michael's is planning to construct a new residence - its first since Elmsley Hall, completed in 1957. The architect has been carefully chosen and is committed to maintain the same architectural style of Fisher, More and Teefy Houses. Rendle reports that it is an exciting time to be associated with the Men's Residence. He encourages alumni to take a stroll down memory lane and visit them online at:

www.utoronto.ca/stmikes/undergrad/res.html.

As you can see, residence life continues to provide for many of our students a strong community of faith and friendship.

Spring Reunion 1999

They came from all over the globe – as far as Newfoundland, California, even London, England! – and from many different graduation years. A good time was had by all! Under a new format that expanded the number of honoured years from the customary 25 years and on, there were attendees from every honoured class from 2T4 to 9T4. The weekend saw over 200 alumni attend a nostalgic Friday night reception. The Saturday night dinner featured an entertaining address by David Wilson, Professor of Celtic Studies. His latest book, "Ireland a Bicycle and a Tin Whistle" was highlighted by a musical closing. Father Harry Gardner 5T4, Superior of St. Michael's, was Principal celebrant and Homilist at the Sunday Reunion Mass, which was followed by a tasty complimentary brunch. The class of 4T9 was particularly well represented, with 65 alumni! As these photographs testify, it is always good to return to St. Michael's.

Father Robert Madden Hall

Celebrating History

Plans to restore and refurbish Carr Hall (Carr 100) to its rightful place in the architectural and academic history of St. Michael's are now well underway. Working with architect Thomas Payne and his firm Kuwabara Payne McKenna Blumberg, a committee of alumni and staff have arrived at a design for Father Robert Madden Hall that we hope will serve not only as a fitting tribute to Father Bob Madden but also as a showcase celebrating the work of Canadian architect, Ernest Cormier. Those of you familiar with Cormier's work at the University of Montreal will recognize in the proposed restoration an acknowledgement of the original ceiling details, underlined by enhancements to lighting and to floor finish.

Practicality dictates the installation of good air conditioning and sound systems. A partial suspended ceiling will be used to house ductwork, and to highlight existing beams. Hardwood floors, hanging light fixtures, wood restoration and creative shading in paintwork for window frames will contribute to the new look. Alumni committee members Gail (Sullivan) Horan, 6T6 and Patricia (Kelly) McGee 6T8 have generously contributed their renovation and design experience (as well as their excellent taste) to the proposed plan. Meetings and consultations will continue as St. Mike's staff committee members, Mary Ellen Burns, (Alumni and Development) Ian Jay (Room Allocations) Stephen Fish (Conference Services) Mimi Marrocco (Continuing Education) and Rudy Tyono (Physical Plant) collaborate with architect Tom Payne during the actual construction phase.

To date approximately $137,000 of the $150,000 goal has been raised for this project. If you have not had a chance to make a gift to this project in honour of Father Madden's retirement, you can still do so. Send your cheque made out to St. Michael's College – Father Robert Madden Hall to St. Michael's College, Office of Alumni Affairs & Development, 81 St. Mary Street, Toronto, Ontario M5S 1J4. Whether it is $50, $100, $1,000 or $10,000 or more, your gift in honour of Fr. Madden's long service to the College and the alumni would be greatly appreciated. If your employer matches donations, you can maximize your gift by sending the appropriate matching gift application form along with your cheque. Please call your Human Resources Department for more details. If you would like more information about making a gift to this project, please call Ken Schnell at (416) 926-7281.

14 June 1999 St. Michael's Convocation

Although stifling heat and humidity are characteristic of Convocation day, the torrents of seemingly relentless rain that gave way just before 2:30 p.m. were the source of some consternation amongst graduates-to-be who, as a result, could not stroll across King's College in the manner of U of T tradition. Nonetheless, the sun was shining brilliantly when the graduating class of 9T9 exited Convocation Hall, degrees proudly in hand, ready for photo opportunities with family and friends.

The day began with the annual Baccalaureate Mass that was held in St. Basil's Church and celebrated by the Chancellor, His Eminence Cardinal Aloysius Ambrozic. Fr. Michael Dodds, CSSR, the College Chaplain, preached the homily and Sr. Veronica O'Reilly, CSJ and Mr. Roy Foss were installed as Honorary Fellows of the University of St. Michael's College. The Convocation ceremony that followed in the afternoon was both inspiring and encouraging. The Chancellor, the Honourable Henry N.R. Jackman conferred the degree of Doctor of Laws, honoris causa upon Mr. F. Anthony Comper, President and CEO of the Bank of Montreal, SMC 6T6 who then delivered the Convocation address.

After the Convocation, graduates and their families and friends proceeded to Brennan Hall for a reception followed by the presentation of awards. Ryan O'Donnell was not only the recipient of a College Gold Medal and the Governor General's Silver Medal, but he was also the recipient of the Lieutenant Governor's Silver Medal for having the highest grade point average in the Faculty of Arts and Science's St. George Campus. The Father Madden Leadership Awards went to 11 worthy students whose dedication to SMC distinguished them as leaders within their class. Finally, the Marina Santin Award was given to Janet Loo and the W.B. Dunphy Medal which is awarded to a student who combined impressive academic achievement with a sustained commitment to volunteer service, was presented to Heather Ingram by the late Professor Dunphy's wife, Kathleen Dunphy 4T8. Other award winners were: Sarah Sheehan (Aere Perennius Prize, Sir Bertram Windle Graduating Scholarship) and Thomas Chi-Wan Kwan (W.H. Broadhurst Graduate Scholarship).
